From Saturday August 2, to Tuesday August 5, 1746.

Munich, August 1.

WE hear that the Day of Election to the Bishoprick of Wurtzburg is settled for the 29th of this Month, and that of Bamberg for the 3d of October. Yesterday it was reported in Town, that the Abbot Prince of Fulde was dead.

Liege, August 5, N. S. We have Advices here from the Armies in Brabant, that upon the 2d Instant there happen'd a small Skirmish near Gemblours, to the Disadvantage of the French; that the Prince of Conti's Head Quarters were at Sombref, and Marshal Saxe's at Wallin near Gemblours; and that the two Armies were in Sight of each other upon the Orneau.

Hague, August 9, N. S. By our Advices of the 4th Instant from the Allied Army, it was encamped along the Eastern Side of the Orneau, with its Right near Ostein and its Left at Masy, with a Corps behind it at Suarle, near Namur, whilst the French under Marshal Saxe, and the Prince de Conti's Corps, lay extended on the other Side of that little River with their Head Quarters at Sombref. The last Letters from Lombardy bring Advice, that General Brown, with a Detachment of 25000 Men, had past the Po on the 24th of last Month without Opposition at Parpaneso, above Placentia; and add, that whilst the Rest of the Combined Army was passing the Po, he was making Dispositions for forcing the Passage of the Lambro, which the Enemy appeared resolved to dispute.

LATIN TONGUE:

Designed for

The Use of the BRITISH NATIONS:

IN THREE PARTS.

CONTAINING,

I. The English Appellative Words and Forms of Expression before the Latin; in which will be found some Thousand English Words and Phrases, several various Senses of the same Word, and a great Number of Proverbial Expressions, more than in any former Dictionary of this Kind, all carefully endeavoured to be rendered in proper and Classical Latin.

To which are subjoined,

1. The Proper Names of the more remarkable Places rendered into Latin.
2. The Christian Names of Men and Women.

II. The Latin Appellatives before the English; in which are given the more certain Etymologies of the Latin Words, their various Senses in English ranged in their natural Order, the principal Idioms under each Sense explained and accounted for, all supported by the best Authorities of the Roman Writers; with References to the particular Book, Chapter, or Verse, where the Citations may be found.

III. The ancient Latin Names of the more remarkable Persons and Places occurring in Classic Authors, with a short Account of them both Historical and Mythological; and the more modern Names of the same Places, so far as they are known, collected from the most approved Writers.

To which are added,

1. The Roman Kalendar, much fuller than any yet published.
2. Their Coins, Weights, and Measures.
3. A Chronology of the Roman Kings, Consuls, and more remarkable Events of that State.
4. The Notes of Abbreviations used in ancient Latin Authors, and Inscriptions.
5. A short Dictionary of the more common Latin Words occurring in our ancient Laws.
